John Morgan, March 7, 1832.
John Morgan Jr. was Administrator.
The Bidders were:

James M. M. Beale
John Morgan
Maurice Morgan
Elizabeth Morgan, the widow.

The following will give some idea of the real estate owned by John Morgan in Shenandoah County, Virginia:

Deed Bk. M. p. 459

July 13, 1801, John and Elizabeth Morgan deed to William Ball, a tract on the N. side of the North River of Shenandoah being part of a tract of land which was formerly granted to Benjamin Allen, by patent dated 29th of June, 1739. (This was the first Morgan deed in Shenandoah County.)

Deed Bk. M. p. 697

Sept. 16, 1801, John Pennywit, for $125, deeds to John Morgan, a tract lying on both sides of the main road leading from Woodstock to New Market, near Mill Creek.

(This land lay just at the foot of the high, or high ground, just as one leaves Mt. Jackson going ~~west~~ ^{south}. This was ^{part} of the home farm of John Morgan, and lay on both sides of Mill Creek which crossed the main road - Route 11, at that point.)

This land was formerly granted, by deed, from ^{through} Lord Fairfax, August 2, 1750, to John Pennywit, Senior, since deceased, who conveyed the same (10 acres), to the said John Pennywit (Jr.).

Deed Bk. N. p. 39

April 12, 1802, George and Jane Lafferty, and Matthias and Elizabeth Sulcer, of the County of Berkeley, for £39, deed to John Morgan, one acre, adjoining the Town of Newark et.

Beginning at the upper end of New Market, in the middle of the main road (now Route 11), and up the same ten poles. This seemed to be a town lot, in New Market ten poles square.

Deed Bk. N. p. 60

October 21, 1800, William and Thomas Prather, of Montgomery Co., Maryland, deed to Jonas Morgan, a tract in Shenandoah County.

Deed Bk. N. p. 293

July 11, 1808, John and Elizabeth Morgan, sold the 1 acre lot, at Newmarket, to Henry Sulcer of Rockingham County.

Deed Bk. N. p. 450

March 16, 1804, Joseph and Margaret Hawkins, his wife, for £300, deed to John Morgan, 100 a., on the westerly side of the North River of Shenandoah.

Deed Bk. N. p. 452

March 18, 1804, Joseph and Margaret Hawkins, his wife, deeded a tract to John Morgan, on the northwesterly side of the North River of Shenandoah, etc.

Deed Bk. Q. p. 101

Dec. 10, 1804, John and Elizabeth Morgan, for ~~£~~ £ 350, deeded to Isaac Samuels, a tract on the westwardly side of the North River of Shenandoah, it being the same tract which was conveyed by Joseph Hawkins Sr., and Lydia his wife, to the said Joseph Hawkins Jr., Dec. 31, 1799, and by Joseph and Margaret Hawkins, to John Morgan, March 13, 1804 — 100 acres

Deed Bk. Q. p. 225

June 10, 1805, John and Elizabeth Pennywit, for $ 4833 31, deeded a tract, on Mill Creek, part of the land granted, by deed, from the late Thomas and

Fairfax, August 2, 1750, 309 acres, to John Pennywit Sr., since deceased, who, in his lifetime, conveyed the same to the said John Pennywit (Junior.)

(I failed to get the name of the grantee, in this deed, but believe it was to Michael Sigler, because he put in a clause prohibiting Sigler from building a mill or sawmill, under any pretense, unless necessity required it, and then should not be permitted to grind more than 50 bushels, in any one year.

Deed Bk. P. p. 203

July 7, 1806, Reuben and Anne

Aug. 9, 1806, William and Elizabeth Steenbergen, for $500, deed to John Morgan —

This land joined Reuben Moore, and Sigler., 100 acres (Note — the description is not clearly given, but the names show that this land was on Mill Creek

-PAUL LONG'S FRENCH AND INDIAN WAR RECORD-

One of the ^{notable} ~~world's~~ contributions to the early Virginia history is the Hopewell Friends' History, 1734-1934. This was in Frederick County, of which Winchester is the county seat. These Friends held their meetings in Opequon, but they did not buy their lands of the Indians, although advised to do so by Thomas Chalkley, a well known Quaker minister, of Philadelphia. He wrote to these Friends at the monthly meeting at Opequon and Shenandoah, May 21st, 1938, and advised them to be ~~xx~~ very careful to buy their lands of the Indians, and show their friend-ship to them in other ways. I ~~now quote from~~ this book:

"As the early minutes of Hopewell monthly meeting no longer exist, it is impossible to know what action was taken in regard to Chalkley's letter. In any event, it does not appear that his advice was followed. For a score of years the settlements grew. Friends, as well as others, advanced farther into the wilderness, and there was no trouble with the Indians. But after Braddock's disastrous defeat in 1755 the French encouraged their Indian allies to make incursions into the valley: and the inhabitants were terrified and thrown into the greatest confusion by their attacks, as they cut off the outlying settlers, massacred their families, and burned their houses."

Evidence of the state of affairs is found in the Frederick County Court Records:

"At a council of war held for regulating the militia of Frederick County ~~Court Martial~~ ~~xxxxxx~~ in order to take such steps as shall be thought most expedient in the present critical conjuncture.

The 14th day of April, 1756.

Proposals having been sent the several Captains of the Militia signed by the Commanding Officer of Militia, & dated the 7th day of April, 1756 "To get what volunteers they could encourage to go in search of the Indian enemy who are daily ravaging our Frontier & ~~Committing~~ their cruelties on the Inhabitants: and the aforesaid Captains, being met together and finding the number of men insufficient to go out against the Indians At one time, even the Town of Winchester was almost abandoned by ~~its~~ its panic stricken citizens.

Washington gives a graphic picture of the situation, in one of his to Governor Dinwiddie:

Winchester, 22 April, 1756.

"Sir,

"This incloses several letters, and the Minutes of a Council of War, which was held upon the receipt of them.

10

Your Honor may see to what unhappy straights the disturbed inhabitants and myself are reduced. I am too little acquainted, Sir, with pathetic language to attempt a description of the people's distresses, though I have a generous soul, sensible of wrongs, and swelling for redress. But what can I do? I see their situation, know their danger, and participate their sufferings, without having it in my power to give them further relief than uncertain promises. I short, I see inevitable destruction in so clear a light, that, unless vigorous measures are taken by the Assembly, and speedy assistance sent from below, the poor inhabitants that are now in forts must unavoidable fall, while the remainder are flying before the barbarous foe. In fine, the melancholy situation of the people, the little prospect of assistance, the gross and scandalous abuses cast upon the officers in general, which is reflecting upon me, in particular, for suffering misconduct of such extraordinary kinds; and the distant prospect, if any, of gaining honor and reputation in the service,-- cause me to lament the hour that gave me a Commission, and would induce me at any other time than this, of imminent danger, to resign, without one hesitating moment, a command from which I never expect to reap either honor or benefit; but, on the contrary, have almost an absolute certainty of incurring displeasure below, while the murder of helpless families may be laid to my account here.

"The supplicating tears of the women and moving petitions of the men, melt me into such deadly sorrow, that I solemnly declare that if I know my own ~~xxx~~ mind, I could offer myself a willing sacrifice to the butchering enemy, provided that would contribute to the people's ease."

(Sparks, Vol. 2; pp 143-4, Ed. 1834)

In the midst of this destruction Friends seem to have been almost miraculously preserved. Some of them were driven from their homes, but none were killed, and only one house was burned. Information to this effect is found in the minutes and papers of the Meeting for Sufferings, of Philadelphia yearly meetings. This standing committee of influential Friends was organized at about this time to give aid to any members of the society who might suffer loss on account of the war, or their refusal to take part in military operations."

The Friends, on Sept. 5, 1757, wrote to the society and gave details of the losses of their people. The society immediately sent £ 50 in money and requested further details, which were sent.

(It was not certainly known just what Indians inhabited this section; but it is probable that both the Shawnees and the Tuscaroras were among the earliest inhabitants of that section. An Indian trail ran north through the Valley, from the Carolinas and Kentucky---F.B.L.)

HISTORY OF THE LONG FAMILY.

By F. B. Lambert.

Philip Long was a German by birth. He was born in Alsace, in 1678, but came to England, where he settled in Londonderry, from whence he came to America. Like many other Germans, he was very frugal, but became somewhat wealthy, especially in land. Taxes were very high in England; hence, he decided to come to America, and settled in York County, Pennsylvania. He was among the first to come to Virginia, where he settled in the Shenandoah Valley in 1730 and built a fort, known as Fort Long, for protection against the Indians. This fort was located at or near Luray. The original estate, in part, is still owned by his relatives, or descendants. The story of his coming to Virginia, and the reasons and circumstances under which he came is fully told in a long article in the Virginia Magazine of History, page _____ and page _____, from which I quote:

"Whereas, Jacob Stover, a native of Switzerland, both by his Petition made humble suit to this Board for leave to take up Ten Thousand acres of land on the west side (of) the Great Mountains, and on the second fork of Sherundo River on both sides of the Branches thereof, for the settlement of himself and divers Germans & Swiss families, his Associates, whom he proposes to bring thither, to dwell, in two years' space. It is ordered by the Governor, with the advice of the Council, that ten thousand acres of land lying with the bounds above described by assigned the Petitioner to be laid off (f) in such Tracts as he shall think fit for the accomodation of himself and his partners, provided that one family for each Thousand acres do come to inhabit there within the time proposed. And in the meantime that no P'son be permitted to enter for, or take the same other than the Pet. & his Associates. A Patent sued out by Jacob Stover for a Tract of Land lying on both sides Shenandoah River, and in the second fork thereof. On hearing the parties by their Council, it is the Opinion of this Board and accordingly ordered That a Patent be granted the said Stover For ye Tract of Land in dispute, pursuant to the grant thereof made to him in the Year 1730, and that the said Sacveat be set aside.

"This Order introduces to history one of the most unique characters connected with the early settlement of the Shenandoah Valley, and for the first time, the place of his nativity is disclosed. Jacob Stover was, in one sense, an enterprising man, but his land transactions were tainted with fraud, and as a consequence a problem has been left to history concerning the place of the first actual settlement by the whites in this section, which can only be solved by the closest research.

The lands mentioned in this Order were actually granted to him by two Deeds, bearing date December 15, 1733 each for 5,000 acres. This fact is disclosed by the Deeds, themselves, which are recorded in the land office at Richmond. One tract was situated on the Shenandoah about four miles below the present site of Fort Republic, and embraced the fine estates owned in more recent years by the Weaver, Strayer and Lewis families. By Deed dated June 23, 1740, Jacob Stover conveyed 3,100 acres of this land to Christopher Francisco, the elder, of Lancaster County, Pa., who was, likewise a native of Switzerland. Deeds from Francisco to Thomas Lewis and Gabriel Jones, recorded at Staunton, Va. fix the location of the upper grant to Stover beyond dispute. The location of the lower grant is still uncertain, but the probabilities seem to be that it was in the present County of Page, on Hawksbill Creek, near the present town of Luray.

The Indian name of this locality was Massanutton, and here, the weight of evidence indicates, was made the first permanent white settlement in the Valley of Virginia. The question is involved, but may be stated as follows:: The grants to Stover were finally made under the head-right act, which gave fifty acres of land for each person imported into the Colony. This is evidenced by the fact that in each of the grants to him the names of 100 persons are given, comprised in five family names, which makes twenty persons in each family. With possibly two exceptions, these names were fictitious, and Stover was clearly guilty of fraud in this transaction. The persons named were not settled upon the land, and it is related that he gave human names to his cows, dogs, and hogs, in order to comply with the law. (Kercheval, HISTORY OF THE VALLEY, 2nd ed. 1850, pp. 41-42) In the CALENDAR, Vol.1. pp. 219-220, appears the petition of Adam Mueller (Miller) and other Germans relative to certain lands which they had purchased "about four years past," from one Jacob Stover, for which they had paid "upwards of 400 pounds," and the land was "known by the name of Massanutting."

The petition recites that they had purchased this land in good faith from Stover, believing his title to be valid; that they were not privy to any fraud perpetrated by him in securing the land which was then being claimed by William Beverly, Gent., who was suing Stover in the General Court to recover it. The latter was described as being "very poor and daily expected to run away." The petitioners alleged the foregoing facts as equitable reasons why their purchase from Stover should be confirmed to them. They came from Lancaster County, Pa., and their names, with the exception of Miller's, are incorrectly given in the CALENDAR, some being represented as illegible. The original petition is still in existence, on file in the State Library, at Richmond. A recent examination of this paper shows the names of the petitioners to have been Adam Mueller (Miller), Abram Strickler, Mathias Selzer, Philip Lang (Long), Paul Lung, (Long), Michael Rinehart, Hans (John) Rood, and Michael Kaufman. Unfortunately, the petition is not dated, although the CALENDAR assigns to it the year 1733.

Bearing in mind the averment in the petition that these pioneers had settled at "Massanutting" about four years prior to the actual date of the paper, external evidence must be sought to fix its date, and consequently the year when their settlement was made. On pp. 217-218 of the CALENDAR (Vol.1, is a letter from William Beverly to some person whose name is not given, but probably his attorney. This letter is dated April 30, 1732, and states that he desires to obtain an Order of Council "for 15,000 acres of land lying on both sides of ye main river of Shenandoah to include an old field known by ye name of "Massanutting Town." Beverly stated that he did not wish to supplant anyone else, and requested that the Council office be searched to ascertain if there was an Order in force granting this land to other persons. He also stated that "ye northern men are fond of buying land there," because they could get it cheaper than in Pennsylvania, which averment is positive proof that immigrants from the Colony were settling on the South Branch of the Shenandoah ~~xxxxxx~~ in the Page Valley, prior to April 30, 1732, the date of Beverly's letter.

A Council Order, bearing date May 5, 1732, which will appear in chronological sequence, shows that to William Beverly, Gent., was granted "fifteen thousand acres on the North West Side of Sherundo River, including a place called Massanutting Town, provided the same do not interfere with any of the tracts already granted in that part of the Colony." Another Council Order bearing date December 12, 1733, shows that a caveat, filed by William Beverly against Jacob Stover concerning lands, was dismissed, and grants were ordered to be issued to the latter, which was done December 18, 1733, as above stated. From the foregoing statement of facts, the conclusions inevitably follow that the land bought by these Germans was identical with the lands mentioned in Beverly's letter of April 30, 1732, and that granted to him by Council Order of May 5, 1732 which both of these Orders located at Massanutting, where the petitioners lived; that it was the same land mentioned in the Order of December 18, 1733, dismissing Beverly's caveat against Stover, and granting the latter two tracts of 5,000 acres, each, on the Shenandoah; that the petition of the Germans MUST have been filed BEFORE THE termination of these legal proceedings, which gives the petition date some time in 1733; and, finally, that they had settled at Massanutton about four years prior to the latter date, which would place them there in 1729 or 1730, most probably the latter year, when the Council Order for 10,000 acres to Stover was passed.

There is, however, some evidence which points to a later date for the Massanutton settlement, and it will be stated in order that future investigators may be in full possession of all the facts. The original papers in the chancery cause of Stone vs. Stover are on file in the old records of Orange County Court. This suit was brought by Ludovick Stone against Jacob Stover April 25, 1737, and the bill recites that some time in or about the year 1734, the Complainant and his partners, then residing in Pennsylvania, had purchased 5,000 acres of land from the defendant, who conveyed 4,000 acres of the tract, but refused to execute a conveyance of the remaining 1,000 acres to Philip Lung (Long), according to agreement; that Stover had executed his bond in the penal sum of 500 pounds to convey the full quantity of ~~xxxxxx~~ land, but while Complainant was absent in Pennsylvania the defendant had persuaded Abram Strickler, in whose possession the bond had been left, to surrender the same, and Stover then refused to carry out his contract, and Stone commenced the suit for specific performance. Stover answered various interrogations in the bill. He set up several defenses, but admitted all the material allegations. He gave the names of Stone's partners as follows: Abram Strickler, Mathias Selzer, Frederick Stone, John Brupecker, (Brubaker), and John Stickley. He also stated that the consideration to be paid for the land was 250 POUNDS and the QUANTITY which they were to receive was 3,100 acres. This suit was dismissed June 23, 1737. A counter suit was brought by ^{against} Stover, Stone and his Associates, the papers of which could not be found. It was dismissed March 23, 1738. The land records of Orange County, Va. show that by four Deeds bearing date December 15, 1735, Stover had conveyed to all the foregoing parties, except Stickly, 3,100 acres of lands, which fact sustains, to that extent, his answer.

These particulars are stated at length in order to differentiate the Colonists who filed their petition in 1733 from Stone and his Associates. The lands of both colonies lay in the Massanutton District, a term applied to the entire Page Valley, but the difference in the names of the persons composing the two colonies seems sufficient to prove that they were not one and the same, when considered in connection with the difference in price paid by them in for their lands. / Of the eight petitioners of 1733 the names of only three appear in the papers of Stone vs. Stover--Abram Syrickler, Mathias Selzer, and Philip Long. Both colonies came from Lancaster County, Pa., and the connection between them was probably close. But all the facts stated above lead to the conclusion that the petitioners of 1733 made their settlement on the Shenandoah in the neighborhood of present Luray in the summer of 1730, and, therefore, was the first permanent white settlement west of the Blue Ridge.

✓ Jacob Stover died in Orange County, Va. in 1741, his son Jacob qualifying as his administrator. The Christian name of his wife was Ruth. A recital in a Deed from him to Peter Bowman in 1736 recorded at Orange, Va., shows that he was living at that time on the South Branch of the Shenandoah.

William Beverly, mentioned in this Order, was actively engaged in the early development of the Shenandoah Valley. He was a native of Essex County, Va., the son of Robert Beverly, the Virginia Historian, and occupied a prominent position in the public affairs of the colony. In 1736 he received, with others, a grant of 118,000 acres of land in the present County of Augusta, then Orange. The City of Staunton is situated within the bounds of Beverly's Manor, as the grant was termed. A letter written by Colonel

Beverly August 8, 1837 to Captain James Patton at Kirchbright, Scotland, shows that they were then endeavoring to induce immigrants from the north of Ireland, and if necessary, from Pennsylvania, to settle on these Valley lands. In this they were

The southwestern boundary was about three miles north-east of present Elkton, Rockingham County, Virginia. This is demonstrated by the following facts: By patent dated Dec. 13, 1738, and recorded in the Land Office at Richmond, Va. Jacob Stover was granted 300 acres of land lying on the south (south-east) side of the Shenandoah River, then in Orange County, "adjoining another tract of the said Stover, containing 5,000 acres." By deed dated October 21, 1741, recorded at Orange, Va., Jacob Stover sold to Joseph Bloodworth a tract of land containing by estimation 320 acres, "be the same more or less," lying on the east (southeast) side of the Shenandoah. The same point of departure is given as above, and the closing lines touch the courses of "Stover's Patent (Sic)." It will be observed that Bloodworth sold to Miller before acquiring title from Stover. By Deed dated Sept. 27, 1764, and recorded at Staunton, Va., Adam Miller conveyed 230 acres of land to his son-in-law, Jacob Bear, "being the same plantation on which said Adam Miller now lives, and which he purchased from Joseph Bloodworth, and he from Jacob Stover, and is part of a greater tract of 320 acres." The Bear family still reside upon this land, which includes the well-known Bear Lithia Spring. Here Adam Miller, the first of the Valley pioneers, lived and died.

These Deeds are possible evidence that one of Stover's 5,000

5,000 acre grants commenced about three miles north-east of present Elkton. The location of the other grant is positively known to have been immediately below present Fort Republic, as shown in the last issue of the Magazine, and therefore can be eliminated from this discussion. The courses and distances of the Grant under discussion do not extend far back from the river on either side, and being surveyed in a narrow strip, 5,000 acres, approximately eight square miles, could easily have been extended down the river a distance of twelve miles or perhaps, further, and this, it seems, was the case. The North-eastern boundary of Massanutten seems to have been in the neighborhood of Newport, a village in present Page County, distant about twelve miles from Bear Lithia Spring, the south-eastern boundary of Stover's lower grant.

Gootschalk, the Moravian missionary, described it in 1748 "a narrow, long, and oblong district." (VIRGINIA MAGAZINE, Vol.12, p.229).

The Fairfax line crossed the Page Valley at Newport. Before the organization of Rockingham County in 1773, the County of Augusta extended down the Shenandoah to this point. North and east of the Fairfax line was original Frederick County. In 1740 the estate of Abram Strickler, one of the petitioners of 1733, was appraised in Augusta County, and that of Michael Rinehart, another petitioner, in 1749. (Maddell, ANNALS OF AUGUSTA COUNTY, 2nd ed. pp. 78-80) In addition, Mathias Selzer, still another petitioner, was appointed a Member of the County Court of Augusta, in 1751. (Gurners HISTORY OF SOUTHEAST VIRGINIA, p.321.) On the 26th of June 1740 Abram Strickler, and others presented a petition to the County Court of Orange for a public road from Smith's Creek over the "Buffiloe Mountains" to the mouth of "Massanutton," and thence over the Blue Ridge to Mr. Thornton's Mill. Petition granted, and Abram Strickberlandt Philippe Lunge (Long) another of the petitioners, were ordered to lay off and supervise the construction of the road. Massanutton Creek flows out of that range of mountains into the Shenandoah in the vicinity of Newport.

These Court records are cited to show that all, or nearly all of the petitioners, of 1735, resided in territory which became a part of Augusta, when that County was organized, and therefore, south of the Fairfax Line. The Court orders fix the location of Massanutton on the Shenandoah between Bear Lethia Springs on the South-west, and Newport, Page County, Va., on the north-east. The "Buffalo mountains" appear for the first time in this petition, and this was probably the name given to the Massanutton range by the first settlers. The road in question is probably that which crosses the mountains from Newmarket to Luray. The two grants of 5,000 acres each, dated December 15, 1733, were the first Crown patents issued for lands in Virginia lying west of the Blue Ridge.

In 1733 this interesting colony numbered fifty-one persons, and nine plantations had been cleared. They state that a few persons had preceeded them in that locality, and this must refer to Alex. Miller and his family, who were frequently visited by the Indians. (Palmer, COMPILAR OF VIRGINIA STATE PAPERS, Vol. 1 pp. 219-20)

The Handleys

Erasmus S. Handley was a son of John Handley (Jr.) of Monroe County, Va., now West Virginia, and grandson of John and Mary Harrison Handley. Aug. 15, 1830, he married Catherine A. Gardiner of Mason County. The Kanawha County Census of 1850, gives their children and their ages as follows:

Melvina H. Handley 19
Virginia P. Handley 17
Susan A. Handley 15
John S. Handley 13
(Your grandfather)
Patrick H. Handley 10
Augustus A. Handley 8

So far, I have found no records of any of these children except John S. Handley, and more a will in October, 1869. This will was lost or hidden, and was contested, but declared good by the court, on April 15, 1874. At that time his wife was Mary E.

Handley. She was made executrix, and was to have the entire estate which, it was to descend to John S. Hanley. (or was it John who died, and John M. Handley married second Mary E. —, but I did not find either marriage.

Monroe 1

There may have been others born after Monroe, but I have not been able to identify them. The Census of 1860 which could be obtained from Washington would show whether others were born.

Records in Mason County show that John S. Handley was born May 10, 1837, and that Oretta Shiveley Handley was born March 5, 1849. They were married Nov. 12, 1865, at Mason City, W. Va. Oretta Shiveley was a daughter of P. B. Shiveley and his wife, Mary Shiveley.

John S. Handley made his will Feb. 12, 1902, and named his wife, Oretta (Shiveley), and ^{had} three children:

Mary E. Morgan

Emma Bagley and

John W. Handley, deceased, leaving two children:

J. H. M. Handley

His wife was Grace.

An Important Deed

Kanawha County June 15, 1829

Deed Book 8. p. 407

June 5, 1829

This deed shows the heirs of John Handley, as follows:

Thomas E. Handley

m. Olivia Hamplon.

Leoras Handley m. John Craig

Erasmus S. Handley

m. Catherine Gardner

John M. Handley m. Sarah J. —

Mary Handley

Augustus A. Handley

m. Minerva Mc Simis.

From the above deed, in view of the fact that one of this family was Samuel Handley, and that the father was John Handley, I naturally concluded that these were the heirs of John and Mary (Harrison) Handley. An examination of John Handley's will shows that this is not true, and that the John Handley, in this deed, father of these heirs, is a son of John and Mary Harrison Handley. Erasmus S. Handley, then was a grandson of John and Mary Harrison Handley.

I have recently found other records showing that John Handley Sr. was a land owner, in Augusta County, Virginia, prior to 1750. He was father of John Handley II, who married Mary Harrison who is buried in the old Guyandotte Cemetery.

mention of Augustus A. Handley.

Recently, I found among my papers copies of several long letters written to me about 1913, by Percival S. Brown of California. He was born many years before the Civil War, and was quite prominent, having held several minor offices, in Cabell County.

He was raised on Beech Fork, just below the mouth of Beech Fork. He was a deputy sheriff before the Civil War, and a very intelligent man. He was telling me his personal recollections of old settlers and events, in Cabell County. He knew most of them, including Augustus A. Handley of Hurricane. He said "Mr. Handley ran a "House of Entertainment there, and "was a mighty fine man".

From Census records, I find that Augustus A. Handley was born about 1813. He married Minerva J. Mc Ginnis July 15, 1841 born about 1823. They had two children, at that time:

Theodore 6

Eliza F. 3

I have found no further records on this family. They may have gone "west", as many others did.

With these records, I believe you can trace your ancestry almost complete from John Handley I, in Augusta County

In order to make this clear, and to avoid error, I am making this summary:

James Hanly Morgan is a son of ~~John S.~~ William S. (and Mary E. Hanly), who died Nov. 22, 1946, a grandson of John S. and Oretta Shively Handley, a great grandson of Erastus S. and Catherine A. ^{Sordiver} Handley, a great ^{great} grandson of John and Pessie Handley, a great great great grand son of John and Mary Harrison Handley, a great great great great grandson of John Handley Sr. or No 1, who was a land owner in Augusta County, about 1745, and he and his son, John Handley probably served in the Revolutionary War.

Deed Bk. N. N. p. 293-4

By order of the March Court 1834, the lands of John Morgan were divided among the heirs and widow. All his several tracts were near Mill Creek.

The widow, Elizabeth Morgan, received 45 acres, on which was located the mansion house, a merchant, and saw mill, etc., same tract conveyed by John Pennywit and wife, by deed of June 10, 1805. (Note - Elizabeth Pennywit was the wife of John Morgan. She was evidently the daughter of John Pennywit Sr. or John Pennywit Jr.)

The land was surveyed and laid off in plats, as here shown.

Plat No. 1, includes a tract on the north side of Mill Creek, 10 acres deeded to John Morgan, by John Pennywit, Sept. 16, 1801.

100 acres conveyed by John the children and heirs of the said deceased.

Plat No. 2, 225½ a., being one half of a Tract conveyed to John Morgan, by John S.
Magill, Marshall of the Special Court of Chancery, by deed of Jan. 27, 1830, - to four of the heirs, as follows:

Lot 6, 50½ acres to John
Morgan, including the house, etc.

Lot 7 to Peter Gowdy who intermarried with Nancy, late Nancy

Lot 9 - 51¼ a & 12 poles to

From the above, it can be seen that John Morgan's family consisted of the following:

The Handleys

The Handley family were of English descent. The name is "found" in parishes, and hamlets in Cheshire, Derbyshire, Staffordshire, and Worcestershire, England. The spelling was variously given as Hanley, Handley, Handley. The family bore arms in the county of Nottingham. In Ireland, as bearer of arms between the 11th and 15th Century, the name appears in Connaught and Roscommon with the Celtic prefix of O'; as O' Hanley, O' Hanley. In Pennsylvania and Maryland records the name is spelled variously, as above.

John and William Handley, came with the Scotch-Irish emigration, to Augusta County, between 1740 and 1750. John settled on the Cowpasture, and his sons, John Jr., and William came to Greenbrier Co., in 1790.

64

William, the pioneer settled in what is now Botetourt Co., on Staunton River (now Roanoke river) in 1746, and his sons became residents of Botetourt County, in what is now Monroe County, previous to 1772. According to family records, William died in 1756. His wife's name was probably Margaret, but the date of her death is not known. Their son Samuel Handley stated (Draper manuscripts) that there were four children: John, Margaret, Nancy, and Samuel (himself); however, the family tradition is that there were four elder sons, — Archibald, William Jr., James, and Alexander.

The tradition is believed to be correct because the records of Botetourt County show these names closely associated together, and they carry down in the family.

John Handley became a resident of Monroe Co., 1774². He was 65 yrs. old when he died Jan. 3, 1811, Muncie, O. 1746.

The Handley farm was located where the County infirmary, near Union now is. Here was the "Handley Fort". It is near Union. John Handley purchased land on Indian Creek, Monroe Co., in 1774. His brother Archibald also purchased land there.

The Handley Fort was a fortified house, home of John Handley, a place to gather for protection against Indian raids. It was built previous to 1779. Some of the old logs of this fort can be seen less than 100 yards from the present County infirmary. There are rose bushes, now gone wild.

John Handley was a Lieutenant, under General George Rogers Clark, in his Illinois campaign. He is buried in Green Hill Cemetery, at Union. They were married, in 1768 (Where?)

John Jr. b. 1770 died between 1821,
